About the ACCNJ Scholarship Foundation...

Each year, the Associated Construction Contractors of New Jersey Scholarship Foundation provides scholarship awards to children and grandchildren of members' employees to assist with their higher education needs. This year, the Foundation will offer five $12,500 scholarship opportunities for eligible high school students pursuing an undergraduate degree in the Fall.

In addition, the Foundation offers the John F. Donohoe Scholarship for civil engineering students already enrolled in an accredited civil engineering program. A minimum of one (up to $12,500) scholarship will be awarded.

2024 ACCNJ Foundation Scholarships

High School Graduates

ACCNJ provides the following scholarships to graduating high school seniors entering an accredited college or university as full-time students, pursuing their undergraduate degrees with a minimum of 12 credits per semester, beginning in Fall 2024.

The Donald R. Waters Memorial Scholarship ($12,500)

Four (4) ACCNJ Foundation Scholarships ($12,500 each)

Candidates will be evaluated on essay, academic performance, extracurricular activities, community service and overall character. The top five candidates will receive scholarship awards.

Civil Engineering Students

The John F. Donohoe Scholarship is available to current sophomore and junior civil engineering students enrolled in an accredited civil engineering program and entering their junior or senior year beginning in Fall 2024.

John F. Donohoe Civil Engineering Scholarship – a minimum of one (up to $12,500) scholarship will be awarded.

Award Notifications & Presentation

Successful candidates will be notified by June 1, 2024, and should plan to attend the ACCNJ Scholarship presentation on June 11, 2024, to be recognized for their achievements.
